Do:
- Start planning early
- Set goals for each event
- Work with your treasurer to establish a budget and get your exec board’s approval
- Delegate tasks efficiently to your fellow exec board/committee members
- Have a rain plan for outdoor events
- Submit contract paperwork at least 4 weeks in advance (2 weeks notice is required by CSI)
- Advertise using a variety of methods
- Have a signup form for events with a limit on participants
- Include faculty fellow involvement when possible
- Plan a wide variety of events
- Enjoy the planning and execution of the event

Don’t:
- Go over budget
- Procrastinate
- Break SOFO or any other University policies
- Forget tax exempt forms
- Exclude any of your residents
- Forget your available resources, such as RCB, various university offices and departments, other res colleges, other student organizations, your master staff, your exec board/committee members, and your residents
