

TASC

Est. 1992

ISSUE 1

TAIWANESE AMERICAN STUDENT CLUB
MAY 2005

Introducing...

The 04-05 TASC Exec Board would like to present the first-ever TASC newsletter! We hope that this newsletter will serve to inform TASC-ers and the NU community with everything from upcoming TASC events to current events in Taiwan. So please read and enjoy! Oh, and also...go TASC!!!

Upcoming Events

5.21 Beach Day w.TASC

Join TASC for a BBQ and fun on the beach

5.26 TASC Desert Sale

Like shaved ice? Come support TASC and buy this tasty treat

Preview for 2005

9.15 Taiwan Night Market

Join TASC for a night of traditional Taiwanese food and Games

In the News

Chinese president invited to Taiwan

SF Chronicle

Taiwan's Wang does talking on the field

eTaiwan News

Taiwanese-American heritage festival set for

New York

Taipei Times

Did you know...

Did you know that Taiwan has the world's highest penetration of mobile phones? (110.8 phones per 100 people)

Source: International Telecommunication Union

CAN'T GET ENOUGH?
<http://groups.northwestern.edu/tasc>

email: m-chiou@northwestern.edu

QUESTIONS?
COMMENTS?
SUGGESTIONS?

Spotlight

Famous Taiwanese-Americans

David Chu

Designer and President of Nautica International, David Chu born in Taiwan. In 1968, he came to America as a teenager. Initially, His interest was drawing and wanted to become an architect. After attending summer classes at New York's Fashion Institute of Technology, he decided to design casual menswear. Chu founded the Manhattan based Nautica in 1983 with six menswear designs. He chose the name "Nautica," because it was the Latin word for "ship." He did everything from designing to marketing. Nautica has now become a mutli-million dollar company.

courtesy of Asian American E-Zine

Picture of the Month

'04-'05 TASC President, Coco Hsiao (left) with current TASC President Vivian Shan (right) at the Spring Formal

Want to become involved with TASC?
Want to always be updated with what is going on with TASC?
Want to be constantly bombarded with emails by yours truly?

email:
kevinhuang@northwestern.edu
to get on the TASC listserv